'There's a fancy dress shop!' Kirsty Tate said, pointing at one of the shops on Cherrywell's busy high street.

'Brilliant!' Rachel Walker replied happily. 'Let's go and choose costumes for Isabel's Halloween party before the bus arrives.'

'OK,' Kirsty agreed. She was staying at Rachel's house for half-term week and the girls had just been bowling with some of Rachel's friends from school. One of them, Isabel, had invited everyone to a Halloween Party at the weekend.

'What do you want to dress up as?' Kirsty asked Rachel. 'Something magical, of course!' Rachel replied with a grin.

Kirsty smiled back. She and Rachel loved magic. It was because they shared an amazing secret: they were friends with the fairies!

Their magical adventures had started on summer when the girls had helped the fairies stop Jack Frost from taking the colour away from Fairyland. Since then, the Fairy King and Queen had asked for their help several times. In fact, that very week, Rachel and Kirsty were right in the middle of another fairy adventure, because Jack Frost was causing trouble again!

This time he'd stolen seven sparkling jewels from Queen Titania's tiara. The jewels were very precious because they controlled special fairy powers, like the fairies' ability to fly, or to give children in the human world sweet dreams. Every year, in a special celebration, the fairies would recharge their wands with the jewels' magic. This year's ceremony was due to take place in just a few days' time.
