Card Trick

‘Oh, this is one of my favourite shops in Wetherbury!’ Rachel stopped outside Sparkly Wishes and turned to her best friend, Kirsty Tate. ‘They always have such gorgeous cards and gifts. Can we go in?’

‘OK,’ Kirsty agreed, pushing open the shop door. ‘Do you want to buy something or just look around?’

‘I want to get a thank you card to give to your parents when I go home at the end of half-term,’ Rachel replied, as they went in side. Kirsty smiled, ‘Oh, that’s lovely, Rachel!’

‘I’ll get a card to send to Mum and Dad, too’ Rachel went on, ‘just to say that I’m fine, and I’m having a great time.’ She grinned. ‘Although Mum and Dad know that I always have a great time when I stay with you, Kirsty.’

‘They don’t know that we are friends with fairies and have lots of exciting, magical adventures, though!’ Kirsty pointed out.

Rachel nodded. The Music Fairies had asked for the girl’s help after Jack Frost and his naughty goblin servants had stolen seven of the Magical Musical Instruments from the Fairyland School of Music. These special instruments made music fun and harmonious in both the human and fairy worlds, and without them, music everywhere sounded terrible and out of tune.

Rachel and Kirsty had been horrified to discover that Jack Frost intended to use the instruments' magical powers to win the National Talent Competition that was taking place at the New Harmony Mall near Wetherbury.

Jack Frost was determined to win the first prize of a recording contract with MegaBig Records, and had sent his goblins to hide out with the Magical Musical Instruments, ready for the competition at the weekend. But, the girls were determined to foil his plans and return all the instruments to Fairyland before Rachel went home at the end of half-term.

'I hope we find another Magical Musical Instrument today,' Rachel; said, as she flipped through a rack of glittery cards. 'We've managed to return Poppy's piano and Ellie's guitar, but we need to find all the other instruments so music isn't ruined forever!'
