Someone in School

'Almost there,' Rachel Walker said as she and her best friend, Kirsty Tate, walked along the sunny street. 'Aunty Joan lives around the corner, near my school.'

'That's good,' Kirsty said, glancing down at the basket they were carrying. 'These Easter eggs might melt if it was any further!'

Kirsty was staying with Rachel's family for a week of the Easter holidays and the two girls were delivering Easter gifts to Rachel's cousins.

'I can't believe it's Friday already,' Rachel said. 'The Fairyland Olympic Games start today!'

Kirsty nodded. 'And we still haven't found Gemma the Gymnastics Fairy's Magic Hoop,' she said. 'If we don't get it back from the goblins soon, then all the gymnastics event at the Olympics will be spoiled.'

The girls were having a very exciting week, helping the Sporty Fairies find their missing Magic Sporty Objects. The Magic Sporty Objects ensured that sport was fun and safe for everyone in the human world, as well as Fairyland, but only if they were with their rightful owners, the Sporty Fairies.
